NARMC's ParRTI's Look Good Feel Better Volunteers Receive Award from ACS

(Harrison)- Recently Erica Morris from the American Cancer Society presented awards to several women who have donated two years of volunteer service to the Look Good Feel Better program at Claude Parish Radiation Therapy Institute.

Look Good Feel Better is a national program provided by the American Cancer Society, the National Cosmetology Association, and the Personal Care Products Council Foundation. Look Good Feel Better is a free program that helps improve the self-image, appearance, and quality of life of people undergoing cancer treatment by teaching beauty techniques to help them cope with the appearance related consequences of cancer treatment and restore their appearance and self confidence through active learning in group setting. Each session is led by a licensed cosmetologist.

The Claude Parrish Radiation Therapy Institute will have their next Look Good Feel Better session on Monday, June 7th from 9:00 am to 11:00 am. To register, please contact Marita Roach at (870) 414-4244. For more information about Look Good Feel Better you can call 1-800-395-LOOK or visit www.lookgoodfeelbetter.org.
