NARMC Welcomes Sonja Martin, PA-C, Occupational Health Officer/Wellness Coordinator

(Harrison) - Sonja Martin, PA-C recently joined North Arkansas Regional Medical Center as its Occupational Health Officer. Sonja holds a Bachelor in Science in Biology from the University of Central Arkansas and a Master of Science in Physician Assistant Studies from the University of Florida.

Sonja's experience includes Primary Care at First Coast Primary Care in Jacksonville, FL and Emergency Care at Memorial Hospital of Jacksonville, FL and Orange Park Medical Center in Orange Park, FL.

Sonja is a member of American Academy of Physician Assistants (AAPA), Florida Academy of Physician Assistants (FAPA), Society of Emergency Physician Assistants (SEMPA), Society of Clinical Research Associates (SOCRA), University of Florida Class of 2004 Fundraising Chair, and Gamma Beta Phi Honor Society.

Sonja is an Arkansas native and her family still resides in Cabot. Sonja's husband of ten years, Jon, retired from the US Navy in December 2008 after twenty years of service. Sonja and Jon enjoy golf and are avid NFL and college football/basketball fans. She follows the Arkansas Razorbacks and the Florida Gators and considers herself a "Gatorback".

North Arkansas Regional Medical Center proudly extends a warm welcome to Sonja Martin and her family.
